Fr de Malleray will explain what is a vocation in general and to the priesthood in particular. Read here the Holy Father's recent Letter to seminarians. Extract: "The proper celebration of the Eucharist involves knowing, understanding and loving the Church's liturgy in its concrete form. In the liturgy we pray with the faithful of every age – the past, the present and the future are joined in one great chorus of prayer. As I can state from personal experience, it is inspiring to learn how it all developed, what a great experience of faith is reflected in the structure of the Mass, and how it has been shaped by the prayer of many generations."
- Cost: no set price for students or unemployed – any donation welcome ; others: £50 suggested.

- Record breaking: this Autumn (2010), the Priestly Fraternity of St Peter gives thanks for the largest ever number of men admitted as First Year seminarians since our foundation 22 years ago: 48, including two British (one more Britton was admitted but was prevented from entering this year due to imperative work commitments). Deo gratias for so many prospective new workers in the Lord's Vineyard. Please continue to pray for numerous saintly vocations : in particular for First Year British seminarians Alex and Mark who began their formation last Autumn in Nebraska and Bavaria respectively, for Second Year British seminarian James tonsured last November in Wigratzbad, for Third Year British seminarian Ian ordained Porter and Lector last November in Nebraska, and for British Deacon Matthew McCarthy to be ordained a priest on 21st May in Nebraska (come and attend his First Solemn High Mass in England at St James Spanish Place, London, Saturday 28th May 2011, 3pm).
- The Priestly Fraternity of St Peter runs two international seminaries: one in Europe, Bavaria for German- and French-speakers (International Seminary of St Peter in Wigratzbad); and one in the U.S.A.: so far the only English-speaking Extraordinary Form international seminary in full communion with the Church. ## 3 next international Catholic Youth gathering in Switzerland, Spain and England:

4-6 March 2011, Fribourg, Switzerland:

As announced on the Juventutem website (www.juventutem.org), our international gathering of delegates of Juventutem groups will take place this year in picturesque Catholic stronghold Fribourg at the heart of Switzerland (cf picture above): from Friday afternoon 4th March 2011 until Sunday afternoon 6th March 2011. Please contact Juventutem International Federation President Raphael Waldis (raphael.waldis@epfl.ch) to let him know who is coming from your group, or to send him proxy for your group in case of vote (by Thursday 3rd March 2011 included).

Like in 2010, 2009 and 2008, this gathering will be an opportunity to meet up and pray together, as well as exchange news and ideas for the life of the Federation, and for WYD this summer.

Email Raphael as well if you are not formerly part of Juventutem and would like to attend.

Schedule (main features):

- Friday 4th March 2011: 6pm: Holy Mass; 8pm: convivial supper
- Saturday 5th March 2011: 9am: Low Mass; 10am: visit of Fribourg and meeting; 1pm: lunch; 3pm: walk through medieval Old Town Fribourg to La Maigrauge Cistercian Abbey (founded 1255) for 4.45pm Vespers [cf picture below]. Convivial supper.

- Sunday 6th March 2011: 10am: Solemn high Mass at St Michel's Church (cf picture above: baroque church of St Michael College, founded by Jesuit 'Apostle of Germania' St Peter Canisius, whose body actually reposes under the high altar). Lunch and walk. Mid afternoon, Prayer and departure.

Access: Fribourg is on the main railway line across Switzerland, from Geneva to Lausanne and Zurich, including direct trains from Geneva airport terminals and from Zurich airport terminals. Please visit excellent Swiss railway website here. Also, frequent Easyjet flights.

9-21 August 2011, Spain:

Already our first 100 youths have booked to take part in WYD 2011 in Spain with Juventutem. Please visit www.juventutem.com for information on our various options and prices.

Below of message of encouragements from Primate of Belgium Archbishop Leonard:

On 6 February 2011

ATT: Rev Fr Armand de Malleray, FSSP – Ecclesiastical Assistant of the International Juventutem Federation

Dear Fr de Malleray,

You have written to me to ask me if I would be disposed to give a catechesis and to offer Holy Mass in the Extraordinary Form of the Roman rite for the Juventutem group at the World Youth Days 2011 in Madrid, with permission of the Pontifical Council for the Laity. I thank you for your invitation and I am happy to accept it in principle. I recall with joy my presence among your young people at the International Eucharistic Congress in Québec where, on 21st June 2008, I have offered a pontifical high Mass and I have preached. I know that you are preparing the 'Week in the Dioceses' in the diocese of Bilbao from 9th to 15th August, before heading for Madrid for the actual WYD. I wish you a rich spiritual time in that part of Spain, homeland of S Ignatius Loyola, also hallowed by many other saints. May their example and their intercession fortify the youths of Juventutem in their love for Christ and make them joyful and stirring witnesses of the sanctity of the Church.

With my blessing and the assurance of my prayer, André-Joseph Léonard, Archbishop of Mechelen-Brussel +

9-11 September 2011, England: Yearly residential weekend for Catholic young men and women (age 18-35) at Douai Abbey, Berkshire. Organised by YCA. Led by Fr Armand de Malleray, FSSP.
